MAYO TRAIL TO BE LET IN FEBRUARY TO PAINTSVILLE

Section From Louisa to Paintsville Delayed by Government Plans

Judge W. L. Watson and Col. Tim Field yesterday returned from Frankfort where they obtained information from Green Garrett, chairman of the Kentucky highway commission, to the effect that the grading of the Mayo Trail between Paintsville and Louisa will be let for contract in February.

This information will be welcome news throughout the Big Sandy valley, as many people in these parts had grown impatient and had begun to hurl epithets against the road commissioners at Frankfort.

As a matter of fact, the delay was caused by changes made in the road by federal engineers and there was nothing for the state engineers to do but to submit since the federal government was aiding in the construction of the trail.

Colonel Field and Judge Watson returned feeling much better about the situation and declared they believed the commission had not been able to prevent the unfortunate delay at Ashland Independent.

Three N. & W. Men Killed In Wreck Near Welch

BLUEFIELD, Dec. 11. Two men from a Norfolk and Western train crew were instantly killed and another was fatally injured when an engine and three loaded cars of a tiny coal train were wrecked near Welch, W. Va., early today.

Fireman (Trig) Wagner, 40, killed by a burst pipe, and while the wreckage was being up was thrown into the river. He succumbed to his injuries at noon today at the numbers hospital at Welch.

Both Engineer Beck and brakeman Neal were scalded to death and were caught under the wreckage.

Both were found in a cramped position with their right hands over their mouths. Engineer Beck is said to have remained seated in his car. His body was not recovered until 2 1/2 hours after the wreck when active searches made it possible for rescuers to extricate the body.

Railroad officials are investigating the cause of the wreck.

Engineer Beck was married and leaves a widow and three children.

Fireman (Trig) Wagner was married leaves a widow and no children.

Brakeman Neal was single.

The dead:

J. M. Beck, engineer, Keystone, W. Va.

E. E. O'Brien, brakeman, Keystone, W. Va.

E. E. Neal, brakeman, Bluefield, W. Va.

Miss Lucille Cyrus

Marries in Pikeville

Miss Lucille Cyrus, one of Louisa's pretty girls, who had been at Kewanee for some time was married in Pikeville a few days ago. The following account of the wedding is from the Pike County News.

Mr. Stafford Sowards of this city and Miss Lucille Cyrus of Louisa, Ky., were married at the home of Mr. J. M. Thornbury of this city at 5 p. m. last Wednesday.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cyrus of Louisa and is employed as stenographer by the Winston Elkhorn Coal Company at Kewanee.

The groom is employed by the Fall Brothers Hardware Company of this city where he gained popularity by his courteous and obliging disposition.

He was the son of the late Henry Sowards. His mother, whose maiden name was Miss Julia Huffman is now Mrs. C. E. Childers of Portsmouth, Ohio.

The NEWS joins a host of friends in extending congratulations to these excellent young people.

Former Huntington Woman Is Paroled

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Mrs. Mahei E. Wilson who, at the time of her arrest on the charge of attempt to commit grand larceny July 25 last, said that she had come to Washington from Huntington, W. Va., has been released from custody on probation after being sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary. To escape detection she jumped from the third story of a department store and was for several months in a hospital with a fractured leg. Because of her plea of guilty and her previous good record, she was granted probation.

LEXINGTON ROBBERS
JAILED AT GRAYSON

Denver Hatfield of Ashland and Leonard Harper of Lexington were in jail in Grayson on charges of robbery and escaping from the Eastern Hospital at Lexington.

Hatfield and his pal escaped from the state hospital and stole a Haynes automobile at Mr. Sterling. They broke into a hardware store at Olive Hill but were forced to abandon the automobile when the owner of the store shot a shower of shots into it.

They took two horses at Olive Hill but were captured by a posse as they neared Grayson. They were returned to Lexington.

CLAYHOLE CASES TO STAND TRIAL

Nine Republicans to Face Murder Charge, Court of Appeals Rules.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 11. The nine Republicans who went to Clayhole, Precinct, Breathitt county, at the 1921 election for State Senator in the Thirty-fourth District, which defamed political control of the 1921 election, were today ordered to stand trial in the Court of Appeals on charges of conspiracy and the murder of Ashberry Conley, the Court of Appeals held today in an opinion by Judge Thomas, when it reversed the Boyd circuit court, to which Clayhole cases were transferred by change of venue.

On election day, November 2, 1921, a battle occurred in the Clayhole precinct and when the smoke had cleared away four men were dead and seven others were wounded. The men killed were Ashberry Conley, the defendant, Ethan Allen and George McIntosh. The battle took place in a field near the town of Clayhole.

In Newberry's Seat

James Conzans, millionaire mayor of Detroit and former partner of Henry Ford, is the new U. S. Senator from Michigan, appointed to the Truman H. Newberry seat, the office to which Ford aspired against Newberry in the now famous election scandals, which finally resulted in Newberry's resignation this month.

ARMCO PLANT IN ASHLAND IS TO BE GREATLY ENLARGED

Six Millions Will be Spent on Big Finishing Mill Addition.

Directors of the American Rolling Mill Company have completed a plan of re-financing of the company, the purpose of which is to provide for the development of the new properties acquired at Ashland, Ky.

The program provides for new capital in the amount of $14,000,000 to be used as follows: $6,000,000 for the re-financing of all the indebtedness of the old Ashland Iron & Mining Company, assumed when the Ashland properties were acquired; $6,000,000 for the cost of new construction at the Ashland plant and $2,000,000 for new working capital at the Ashland plant.

The expansion project for the Ashland plant calls for new finishing mills to cost $6,000,000. This will give a completely balanced unit at Ashland covering all processes from the raw material to the finished article, with a capacity of 20,000 tons of finished product per month. The company has a present finished capacity at Middletown and Zanesville of 22,000 tons, so that the addition at Ashland will give the company a total monthly capacity of 40,000 to 42,000 tons, or something over 600,000 tons of finished products a year.

This capacity will enable the company to successfully meet all the demands upon it for its products, and by the proportionate reduction in overhead

The commission named under the legislative act to select sites for the new State Normal Schools is trying to assume the power of selecting the faculties for the schools. Everyone who was in touch with the Legislature last winter knows that no such thing was contemplated. The object of the commission's efforts to go so far beyond its duties is quite evident. It is the "climber" action to get the schools started at once and bind the State in the matter of its appropriation. The courts will settle this and other points.

The Court of Appeals has done just what the public expected in the cases of the nine men indicted for conspiracy and murder in the Clayhorne cases. It decided that the men must stand trial. The ruling of the Boyd Circuit Court that these men escape trial on the conspiracy charge, was reversed. It would have been a rank miscarriage of justice if the men could thus escape who went from other precincts into this "booby" place and were responsible for the loss of lives and the rape of the ballots. If they are not guilty let them prove their innocence to a jury. If guilty they deserve extreme punishment. The existence of our republic depends upon the courts dealing out justice to all.

In response to a call from various sources Mr. John E. Buckingham has given out a statement in which he says he is not a candidate for Governor and does not expect to become a candidate. He is, however, in the largest affairs now happening in Kentucky in the way of business and development and has no disposition to seek political honors. The idea of scrambling for an office is distasteful to him, as it is to everybody except the professional politician.

There is a demand from all over Kentucky for just such a man as John E. Buckingham for Governor. The three Democratic newspapers of Louisville, and a large majority of newspapers throughout the state, just now are engaged in a selfish campaign to secure a man of the Buckingham type to head the ticket. The trouble is to get the consent of the right men to enter. Politicians will run in spite of the public demand for the opposite type of citizen and this forces a race upon any business man who consents for his name to be offered.

Knowing Mr. Buckingham as we do, and having seen him demonstrate at every opportunity his broad public spirit, we believe he would not refuse to serve his state in this crisis if the call came to him in the proper way. Whether or not this is possible is the great question now confronting the people, so far as Mr. Buckingham or any other desirable man is concerned.

Large business experience and great business ability is needed in the Governor's chair. Kentucky is collecting between fifteen and twenty millions per year from her citizens in taxes for state purposes and cannot make ends meet. The deficit is growing larger each year. The people have tried politicians of both parties without any relief being afforded. Surely the handling of the enormous and sacred tax fund mentioned herein is a big business task; and nobody but a real, honest business man can or will reduce the waste, or give to the people the worth of their money.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS

OF LAWRENCE COUNTY

The dog law that was made by the General Assembly in 1918, will be the same for the year 1923. It has been removed over the county that this law was repealed by the 1922 Legislature and every family allowed a free dog, but this is a mistake.

All persons owning a dog or dogs are required by law to secure a license and tag for each dog for the year 1923, on or before the 1st day of January, 1923.

Fees:—One male $1.00; all over one male, $2.00 each. One female $2.00; all over one female, $4.00 each. In applying for dog license please do not forget to state the breed, sex, age, and color of your dogs. Enclose the fee as stated above and I will mail your license and tag to you by return mail.

I have the license and tags on hand now for 1923 and they will be issued direct from this office. Get your tag before January 1, 1923.

Respectfully yours,
CHAS. M. EDWARDS
Clerk Lawrence County Court.

The body of Mrs. J. H. Fuller, 49, who died in a Huntington hospital, Wednesday morning, was taken to her home in Pikeville, Ky., for the funeral. She is survived by her husband, J. H. Fuller.

Foot Ball.
He made a run around the end. Was tackled from the rear. The right guard sat upon his neck. The fullback on his ear. The center sat upon his legs. The two ends on his chest. The quarterback and halfback sat down on him to rest. The left guard sat upon his head. The tackle on his face. The corner was then called in to sit upon the case. Let 'em all pile up on top. Or send you for a roll. You come up smiling when you know. You fell across the goal!

Eloquent Brevity.
An old negro brother, seated far back in a crowded experience meeting, stood up, gained the attention of the leader, and said:
"Kiss I just one word?"
"You can," said the leader. "Go ahead."
Then, with all his might, he shouted, "Halleluia!"—Atlanta Constitution

His Own Fault. Hubby—"You're three-quarters of an hour late. What do you mean keeping me standing around like a fool?"
The Wife—"I can't help the way you stand."—Chaparral.

On Their Way.—"We may as well give up trying to get into society," said Newrich in discouragement. "The barrier is insurmountable."
"Nonsense!" returned Mrs. Newrich. "We'll get over it in time."
"What! have we wings?" he expostulated.

"No, but our money has," said his wife.—Western Christian Advocate (Cincinnati).

Carfare.—For hours they had been together on her front porch. The moon cast its tender gleam down on the young and handsome couple who sat so close together. He sighed. She sighed. Finally:
"I wish I had money, dear," she said. "I'd travel."

Impulsively, she slipped her hand into his; then, rising swiftly, she sped in the house.
Aghast, he looked at his hand. In his palm lay a nickel.—Lampoon.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by The M. E. Church Sunday School, Fort Gay, W. Va., Sunday, December 10, 1922.

Fort Gay M. E. Sunday school, in full attendance, do unanimously adopt the following resolutions, to-wit:

Resolved 1st. That on account of Bro. L. D. Bryan having left us and gone to other and new fields of labor, we feel that Ft. Gay has suffered a deep loss in citizenship, in ministerial work and especially in funeral services.

Resolved 2nd. That there will be a vacancy in our church here that will be hard to fill. We feel that our church let Bro. Bryan do too much and that we did not assist him in the detail work of the church as we should. He was so faithful.

Resolved 3rd. As a Sunday school we glorified him for his never tiring service and especially in his faithful care over the little ones. We will miss him in giving so many candy parties and treats. We will never forget the last entertainment of the children, unique in the extreme. "Walnut-cracking and candy pulling; he never was pharisaical, always looked after the lowly.

Resolved 4th. That we all pledge that we will so live that we will meet him in the reunion of our Sunday school in the beautiful beyond where there will be no good-bye.

Resolved 5th. That we have a copy of these resolutions spread on our Sunday school record and a copy be sent to each of the Louisville papers last request to publish. Also, a copy be sent the Pittsburg Christian Advocate, our church paper, with request to publish.

"The Church of Friendship."
Have you ever attended a service here since November the first? Well come, and see how you like it. We are having great fellowship and fine services. Our Christmas tree will be on Saturday night, December 23, at 7 p. m. Come, and be sure to bring the little ones to see old Santa. There will be something for every child. We invite you to all our services and pledge you a hearty welcome. Say, did you know there is one class in our Sunday school with over 60 enrolled? We want others like it. Be sure and enroll in one class next Sunday in this, or some other church in our city.

The pastor of this church believes in the future of Louisville, also in the present Louisville. He has secured the greatest preacher perhaps in the South to help him in a revival, beginning the second Sunday in March. Dr. J. W. Gillison of Winchester. Remember the date and be sure to tell others about it.

Beginning next Sunday night, and for the next two months the pastor will preach a number of sermons on or about "women." Come, and hear our orchestra. Meet us at the Baptist church next Sunday at all services, 9:30, 10:30, 6 p. m. and 7 p. m.

"Friendship with the church will enrich your home."

Dr. R. T. Webb, secretary of education for the Western Virginia Conference, was here Sunday and spoke to large congregations morning and evening. Much favorable comment has been heard from those in the audiences.

Presiding Elder C. A. Slaughter came up Wednesday evening and held quarterly conference and conducted the prayer meeting. The attendance was large.

Every member of the Sunday school is urged to be present next Sunday to bear about the kind of Christmas entertainment that has been arranged for. Do not miss this. All friends of the school are included in this invitation.

LOUISA CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The cold wave on last Lord's day was no hindrance to the faithful few. By their fruits ye shall know them. All services were well attended and all had a splendid time together worshipping God.

The S. S. superintendent, Bro. J. N. Marcum, was pleased with the attendance and interest in the study of the lesson.

A committee was appointed to arrange a program in memory of the nativity of our blessed Lord. A fine treat for all is assured. Program will be announced later.

The pastor will preach two sermons December 17 on the subject, "Why do men refuse to face facts?" Public cordially invited to all services as follows:

Sunday school 9:30.
Preaching and communion 10:30.
Evening services 6:30.
Mid week services Wednesday at 6:30 p. m.

Why Purchase Your Holiday Gifts Sight Unseen?

There is a decided charm in the PERSONALLY SELECTED GIFT and there is no other method to secure them than by actually seeing and selecting the merchandise. We know you will be delighted with your selections made in Huntington.

Huntington is only a short distance from you and by coming to our stores you can personally choose, make comparisons and select a better assortment of merchandise than you can possibly secure from some distant city. Disappointments and delays are eliminated and you see the merchandise before you purchase and know it is just what you want.

Your own local merchant will tell you that Huntington is your most satisfactory market for the items that he does not carry in stock and he also knows that we urge his customers to buy from him locally whenever he has the items you want.

Huntington stores have made great preparations for their out of town visitors this season and the assortment of holiday merchandise is the largest, freshest and finest we have seen offered here for many years.

Service and courtesy coupled with up-to-date business methods make Huntington stores a favorite place for shoppers. If you have ever traded in Huntington you will need no urging to come again; if you have never availed yourself of this nearby home market you will be delightfully surprised at what is offered in our local stores.

OBITUARY

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Staley of near Prichard, W. Va., Nov. 28, and took from them their darling son, Hennie, age 15 years. He was confined to his bed about five weeks prior to his death, following an illness of typhoid fever, blood poison, spinal meningitis and tuberculosis of the bone.

Hennie was a quiet, kind hearted boy and was loved by all who knew him. He will be sadly missed by his many friends and relatives. He is survived by his father, mother, four sisters and two brothers besides a host of friends and relatives who mourn his loss.

This young man accepted Jesus in his dying hours and left bright hopes to console the sad hearts of his bereaved ones.

Funeral services were conducted by Thomas Frazier of Prichard. The body was laid to rest in the home cemetery on Grapston creek.

The family wishes to thank their many good friends and neighbors for the kindness shown them during the sickness and death of their beloved one. A FRIEND.

IN MEMORY

On November 14, 1922, the angel of death knocked at the door of the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Moore and called from the home a darling baby boy, James Edwards.

Little James Edwards was born September 29, 1920. He had been a faithful member all the time and about three weeks before his death he became worse. He bore his suffering with patience.

We feel that the home has lost a tender bud, but Jesus just picked the bud from the stem and transplanted it in heaven where there will be no growth, no winter, the precious flower, but it will flourish and bloom on throughout all eternity.

I would say to the friends and loved ones of little Edward not to think of the pain, this form of little Edward as it was when he went away, but when you meet him it will be a bright shining angel.

Little Edward had grown to be the favorite of the home and everybody loved him, but Jesus loved him more.

The home is lonely, the father and mother are heartbroken, the sisters and brothers are lonely since Edward has gone away. He leaves father, mother, five brothers and two sisters to mourn here on earth while he is rejoicing in heaven. Live a life that when you come to die Edward would come with Jesus and take you home.

He was laid to rest in the family burying ground on the point overlooking the home to await the second coming of Christ when the dead in Christ shall rise first.

Sleep on, sweet babe and take thy rest.

God called thee home, He thought it best.

A little flower of love that blossomed but to die.

Transplanted now above to bloom with God on high.

PAINTSVILLE

H. S. Howes Cured.
Hon. H. S. Howes returned this week from St. Elmo, Ill., where he went to be treated by the faith doctor. Mr. Howes had been suffering for some time with a partial stroke of paralysis and other troubles and was treated in Louisville for several weeks.

Friends persuaded him to go to the faith doctor and he is now a well man. "I know I am cured," said Mr. Howes in discussing his recovery.

JENKINS

On Saturday afternoon, December 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Tom Williams, of Jenkins, a surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. E. L. Sweetman, formerly Miss Ida Stylo, of Ashland. A delightful afternoon was spent as it was the first opportunity the women of Jenkins had been given to meet the bride of Prof. E. L. Sweetman and the afternoon proved to be a real Thanksgiving occasion for the bride and bridegroom as they were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Amid music and laughter delicious refreshments were served which were greatly enjoyed.

A Puzzle.—"I beg your pardon, sir, but what is your name?" the teller politely asked the man presenting a check.

"Name," echoed the indignant customer, "don't you see my signature on the check?"

"I do," answered the teller. "That's what aroused my curiosity."—Dry Goods Economist.
